Famous Faces?

Vince Lombardi Eddy Arnold Jimmy Stewart Roy Rodgers Patrick Henry

No, but these famous names do have something in common. They are all veterans of U.S. Military Service and qualify for assistance from the U.S. Small Business Administration.

If you are a veteran, (no matter what your name is) and want help in starting a business or with one you own, call the U.S. Small Business Administration nearest you.

Ask for the Veterans Affairs Officer. He or she may not be famous, but will treat you as though you were.
